weather will cut down the yield.

The Santa Fe railroad officials say of Kensas: Corn is being held to see whether this year's crop will be a failure. If the crop promises well, extraordinary heavy shipments of corn are looked for. Further, there will be a yield of 60,000,000 bushels of wheat, and within thirty days the railroads will have all they can do to handle it.

The first new oats of this year's crop were received yesterday. The Thayer Grain Commission Company had a car in from L. Chamberlin, Spring Hill, Kos., that was a good No. 4 mixed. He couldn't get a bid on it. Brodnax & McLiney had in a car from J. B. Ward, Gardner, Johnson county, Kas., that graded No. 2 mixed. The best bid they could get was 16c, which was refused.

The Chicago Times-Herald says: Robert Linboom indulges in reministration The Chicago Times-Herald says: Robert Linboom indulges in reminiscences in his review of the wheat situation. He says: "If Russia and the Danubian provinces are short 25 to 40 per cent, and they are so reported, it simply intensifies the export position. It reminds me of the summer of 1880. The professionals, headed by James Keene, had started in the fall of '79 to built wheat and had dropped out. We had a 50,000,000 crop in sight. September was over it discount. What was the result? An advance of 60c per bushel culminating in the summer of 1881. What was the reason? Busic gays us the field."

Stocks and Bonds.

New York, July 16.—The stock market, which dropped a trifle yesterday, was looking up a bit to-day, active securities closing strong and fractionally higher, while usually somnolent low priced stocks were aroused by a fair demand. The meagerness of the dealings, however, indicated but a lack of interest or coutionsness. Business reiterations of wheat prospects above the average, there was further evidence of diversified foreign demand for our cerests, denoting shortages abroad and rather confirming the supposition that the European requirements for our wheat will be enormous and promising remunerative prices for both crops. The unprecedented exports of merchandise for the year ending June 23, as set forth in the government report, were a hopeful sign, as was the fact that the high prices current for active railroad stocks are accompanied by but little local liquidation. Prices tended upward in the early trading, accompanied by some manipulation in certain cheap speciaities. specialties.

The following was the range of prices yesterday, as furnished by the C. S. Lee Commission Company, 200 New York Life building:

CROPS IN NORTHWEST KANSAS. Plenty of Old Corn and the New Crop Is Almost Assured-Splendid Wheat.

Atchison, July 15.—It is estimated that 40 per cent of last year's corn crop is still in Northern Kansas. At every railway station the great cribs of corn are just as they were last fall, but active movements are looked for within the next two or three weeks, for the owners will let it go as soon as this year's crop is assured.

The rain of last Friday, followed by the cool weather of this week, has put corn in a condition to stand a great deal of hot weather. The insignificant streams of former years are now running rivers of muddy water. The swamps have returned in the lowlands in Northwestern Kansas and the ravines are dotted with ponds.

In former years at this season the best corn has been found east of Washington county, but this year it is west of Washington. There has been so much rain over the first 100 miles of the state, after leaving the Missouri river, that corn is weedy and backward. The farmers were late in getting in their seed, and the stand is nothing like that found further west, where stalks tower two or three feet above the fence posts, and are already tasseling out.

West of Waterville in the Central Branch country, this year's wheat crop, which has been harvested, is the best since 1992.

The bulk of the cattle fed in the Central Branch country last winter and spring has been marketed, but farmers will engage in the stock business extensively again next fall. They made money feeding last winter, and there will be a scramble for stock again as soon as this year's crops shall be taken care of.

There was a better tone to the market yesterday. The run was only fair for Friday and the greatest failing off was in range stuff in the native division, where the market suffered the most the previous days of the week. The lighter offerings here caused a steadler market for these cattle and more life than for several days, and all good killing steers brought fully Thursday's prices, but stockers and feeders were weak. In the Texas division there was also a very good movement in the more desirable stuff, but canners and thin stockers were weak to a little lower. Export and dressed beef steers—dry lot cattle—met with a very good demand and were fully steady and the offerings were soon disposed of. But few native cows in and all good butcher grades sold readily at steady prices and best firm. Hange cows also met with very good demand at Thursday's prices. Stockers and feeders continue slow. Hest natives steady, but the poorer grades dull and weak. Milch cows quiet Common, 156418; medium to fair, $2527, and good to choice, $25428.

Chleago. July 18.—The Chicago Shoe and Leather Review of July 17 will say:
The packers were compelled to abate their prices slightly and some sales resulted at a 4c reduction from previous transactions. Native steers were sold at 104c, and 84c for heavy and light. Texas steers sold at 10e for heavy and 94c for light, and Colorado steer hides at 84c. It is not likely that the market will decrease much as the stock is not large. The situation is simply that the packers put prices too high and were compelled either to ease up or do no business. Apart from the United States Leather Company no buyers were in this market this week. the United States Leather Company no buyers were in this market this week. Country buff hides are quoted a shade weaker, but the stocks are meager and a very little demand seems to keep the prices

FALL HORSE AND MULE TRADE WILL

OPEN EARLIER THAN USUAL. toticeable Revival of Business About Local Sales Stables-A Number of New Buyers Have Come Here in the Past Few Days.

There is a noticeable revival of life round the horse and mule sales stables. A number of new buyers have come in the past few days, and what is known as the fall trade promises to open up earlier than usual this year. Daniel Arnheim, of Pitiaburg. Pa., is here after mules, Crouch, of Maxwell & Crouch, St. Louis, and M. Fox & Sons, Baltimore, Md., have and M. Fox & Sons, Baltimore, Md., have also been buying these useful animals the past few days. M. A. Douglass, Memphis, Tenn., and W. Robinson, Augusta, Ga., want good plantation horses. F. Swanigo, Old Mexico, took a shipment of mules for that country the other day. This is a pret-try good showing for one week in mid-stammer.

W. C. Sparks has just got back from Pleasant Hill and Lee's Summit, Ma., whither he went after mules. He says crops are looking fine in the eastern part of Jackson county.

Winslow Bres, say their latest reports from North Carolina indicate fair crops, and expect a very good mule trade from that section this fall.

The receipts of horses and mules reported by the stock yards for the six months ending with June show quite a falling off cumpared with the same time less year, but when the 23,172 received at the Grand avenue stables for the same time be added to them, the total reaches 44,767, an increase of 9,989, a gain of 28 per cent.

to them, the total reaches 44,767, an increase of 2,389, a gain of 25 per cent.

Colonel Albert Dean, of the bureau of animal industry, is just back from Baxter Springs, Kas., where he was called the first of the week to look after a case of Texas fever. A. Mr. Thomas, who has a farm on the state line of Kansas and the Indian Territory, just south of Baxter Springs, reported a number of his cattle down with the disease. His pastures extend over into the territory and south of the quarantine line. He had in them 11 native cattle, eighty of them 1-year-old steers, which he expected to feed for market. Between his pastures in the Quapaw reservation and his Kansas farm is a common driveway about forty rods wide, leading to the graxing lands of the Indian Territory, over which all kinds of Southern cattle are driven. It is supposed in crossing this driveway to the Kansas farm the cattle contracted the fever. The first animal was taken sick July I, and from that to July B they died at the rate of eight to ten per day, until all the steers brought over, some eighty odd, died, and every head of cattle on the farm is sick, with the exception of calves. The sick cattle being wholly in the state of Kansas, the Kansas live stock commission was notified, and it took charge of the case, and the farm has been quarantined. Colonel Dean is more convinced than ever that something more is needed in dealing with this disease than quarantine lines. He says the source of infection must be removed before the cattle are brought North, and hopes much from the dipping experiment that is to be tried. from the dipping experiment that is to be tried.

Corn along the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis railroad is said by Colonel Albert Dean, who has just come over the line, to be spotted and much in need of rain.

Eugene Sherwin has returned to the stock yards, and has opened a stenographer's of-fice in room 571.
